AWAKENED AWARENESS—The Path and Process of Shin Buddhism Reviews were outstanding and attendees learned a lot. Ideas and information explained basic principles and energized them to put them into practice. Seminar enthusiasm spilled over to the DS Kickoff in the park at Kenilworth park the next day.

CONDOLENCES

TO THE FAMILY OF REVEREND KAZUO NAKAGAMI who served as OBT's minister from fall of 1966 to December 1976. He was still single when he arrived after serving at the Seattle Betsuin and officiated at the dedication of our current temple building in November 1966. A year later his wedding to Hiroko took place in the new temple. Although his English was halting, because of his gentle demeanor, he was loved by young and old alike. He served San Francisco Temple on leaving Portland and then returned to his family temple in Japan. Word was received from the Hongwanji International Department that Sensei passed away on 8/27/2015 in Shiga, at the age of 87. He is survived by his wife, Hiroko, and an adopted son, who continues in his father's place.

Condolences can be sent to: Nakagami Family,
Sainen-Ji Temple, 785 Minami Yamada-cho,
Kusatsu-shi Shiga-ken, Japan 525-0063

Condolences to Steve Pawloski and family at the loss of their mother, grandmother, great-grandmother.

President's message

Cathy Yarne, OBT President

Dear Sangha Members,
Many of you have heard "bits and pieces" and rumors about Portland Taiko (PT) moving into OBT. To avoid further speculation I'd like to "officially" share some of the discussions in regards to Portland

Taiko's proposal. First, a formal rental or lease agreement has yet to be made/signed. In August the Board unanimously agreed to "pursue" this proposal. By doing so it enabled PT and OBT to proceed with investigating the feasibility and details of an arrangement that works for both parties. If and when a formal lease agreement is created, it will be presented to the Board for approval.

There are many positive benefits to leasing space to Portland Taiko. Just to mention a few:

- a) Security: Increased presence and foot traffic in the annex and temple can be a deterrent to crime and unwanted visitors
- b) Financially provide a steady monthly income not related to fund raising
- c) A complimentary performance at Obon
- d) Continue a positive relationship with both cultural and performing arts communities.

Right now we are determining if we can meet their needs which include: a) Use of the basement for rehearsals and lessons primarily on weeknights b) Office space (a room in the annex) c) Half of the garage and d) Storage space in the basement for practice equipment.

Like all OBT rentals, Portland Taiko understands that when necessary, temple events and needs will be come first. For example they would not use the basement on Friday or Saturday when we are preparing for the Sukiyaki dinner or need to conduct a funeral.

Several volunteers are and have been reorganizing and cleaning up spaces in the temple and annex. Not only is this general clean up and reorganization long overdue, it also enables us to create the space that PT is hoping we can provide. I'm confident that OBT can have a professional, trusting and comfortable relationship with Wynn Kiyama, the Executive Director of Portland Taiko and incidentally an active temple member.

This is a brief summary of the details so far. We are trying to be very thoughtful, thorough, and are making an effort to foresee any issues that might arise. Having an arrangement like this is a major and new step for our temple so I welcome your questions and comments. Contact me at: yarnefamily@gmail.com or catch me at the Sukiyaki Dinner.

Welcome potluck for Midori and Kana

Have you been to the Temple lately and noticed any changes? I was told long ago, that if we travel on the same path we should always strive to find something new or different. Check it out next time you're at the Temple.

OBWA News by Jayne Ichikawa

The highlight of OBWA in August (not counting the OBONfest) was the arrival of Midori Kunasaki and Kana Nishida from Japan as part of the Federation of Buddhist Women's Associations Youth Exchange with Japan. They arrived in Portland on August 17, and were enthusiastically welcomed by OBT/OBWA members and friends. A service was held and led by Etsu Osaki followed by a delicious potluck dinner organized by June Shiigi, co-chair of the Youth Exchange, and Ann Shintani. The family of Ray, Lori, David, and Kristi Fukunaga generously hosted the two young ladies and were involved in many enjoyable activities and outings during their two and a half days here in Portland. Many thanks especially to the Fukunaga family, June Shiigi and many others who helped and participated in their incredible visitation.

Attendees at our 2nd Annual Kumihimo Class taught by Yoko Arai in September had a very nice time. Their crafts may be sold at the November OBT Holiday Craft Fair.

The Fall season begins in September and the celebration of Ohigan is observed. Ohigan is an important time to observe balance and transition. It is also a time to remember our ancestors, loved ones, and the tradition of eating ohagi. We are very fortunate to have Kiyomi Dickinson, Nancy Kaitsu, Katie Tamiyasu take charge of preparing the anko and ohagi on the weekend of September 26-27. After the Ohigan Service on September 27, the traditional ohagi will be served. Homebound members will also be remembered by delivery or pick-up arrangements.

OBWA members will be very busy with the preparation and sale of the OBT's annual Sukiyaki Bazaar on October 4. Sukiyaki (beef and vegetarian), chow mein, and chicken bento will be sold. Much help is needed starting on October 1, 2, 3, and the day of the Sukiyaki Bazaar, October 4.

Upcoming Events:

October 9: OBWA is in charge of the Hospitality Room for the FBWA Representatives' Meeting which will be held on October 10, at the Double Tree Hotel in Seattle, WA. June Shiigi, Jayne Ichikawa, Marilyn Achterman, Etsu Osaki, Cathy Yarne, and Carol Saiget will be attending.

October 17: OBWA monthly meeting at 9:30am will be held in the annex.

November 1: 1:00pm Past Members Memorial Service

November 14: OBT 2015 Holiday Craft Fair, 10:00am-4:00pm

If you are interested in joining the Oregon Buddhist Women's Association, please contact June Shiigi at obwa@oregonbuddhisttemple.com or Jayne Ichikawa at jayneichi@gmail.com.

NOTE: If your name is not on this or any toban list and you are willing to take "your turn" in helping the temple, please notify Jean Matsumoto at 503-280-2463 or jamatsumoto@gmail.com. Thank you

There's no greater Dana than selfless giving. You can use monthly Temple clean up as a meditation itself. You don't have to be on this month's Toban to help make the Temple an inviting place. If you'd like to be placed on a Toban list, please contact us at board@oregonbuddhisttemple.com

Temple clean up is usually the last Saturday of the month. Please check with the tobans on Sunday to confirm the date.

Toban not only means "my turn" but "my chance" to show my appreciation to all the men and women whose monetary donations and hard work resulted in this beautiful place, our Temple, to hear the Dharma.

---Words of Jean Matsumoto, 1995

How to help the temple with little or no effort.

If you order items online, shop at Amazon, or shop your local grocery store, you might be able to donate to the temple and get a tax deduction.

Christmas is less than 100 days away and the new year seven days later. If you are looking for that perfect gift for the hard to buy for, consider gift cards. You can purchase gift cards through the temple and the money the temple receives for that gift card is tax deductible for you!

Check the temple website for more information and links. <http://www.oregonbuddhisttemple.com/>

OTHER WAYS TO DONATE!

If your company participates in a United Way campaign and you weren't sure you wanted to donate, please reconsider. Did you know that you can direct your United Way contribution to your favorite non-profit; OBT?!?!?

Especially if your company matches your donation in any amount, please consider directing your donation to Oregon Buddhist Temple. It should be on the list of organizations. I know, I donate With Gassho, Amy Peterson

Downsizing? Recycling?

The Omiyage(gift) Table for the Sukiyaki Bazaar is looking for donation of items to sell. Asian themed and handcrafted items are especially appreciated. You can leave the items during Sunday morning dharma gatherings, in the temple basement or annex. Please label box or bag clearly - "For Omiyage".
Arigato!

Susan Endecott, Brenda Fugate, Janice Ishii

Ed Note: While Omiyage is translated into English as "souvenir" it was not meant for the traveler to keep, but as something from the area they traveled. This is a Japanese tradition that now encompasses food items. We however loosely use the term to mean "gift".

At our Omiyage shop you can purchase for yourself or find something for someone who was not able to attend.

EDITOR CORRECTIONS

Please note that the Porta-Potty was thanks to the efforts of Ray Fields who was unable to physically attend. He is feeling a little better, is now at home and we hope to see him back at the Temple, very soon!

Dharma School News

dharmaschool@oregonbuddhisttemple.com

Dharma School teachers will be passing out My Offering envelopes to students. Part of the motivation of the My Offering donation is to provide an opportunity for DS students to take ownership not only in their temple, but help provide program opportunities for students throughout BCA. Please talk to your student what they can do to earn money to donate.

Thanks to the DS teachers and all the people that helped make our DS year Kick off great! Parents, students, adults all had fun getting to know new people and renew old friendships. Our friends The McNicholas family on their annual visit from Mexico (with their grandson), a visitor from the Midwest who found us in his travels through OR. Some new young adults gathered that might be interested in organizing a YABA group or at least thinking of some fun and interesting activities for their age group. The possibilities are endless.

Kirt Achterman is re-activating the Young Buddhist Association at OBT. He has already motivated Joy Y, Michi S, and Alyssa O in putting on activities for younger DS students during the Aware and Awake seminar Sat. Sept 12th They used what they learned to ring the Kansho for our service in the park. Students and youth leaders alike had a great time and learned a lot.

Donations of store purchased items for the Sukiyaki Bazaar gratefully received. Please contact Ann Shintani or drop off at the Temple Sunday Oct 4.

LOTUS CIRCLE – Oct by Jean Matsumoto

It's fall and the trees will soon show signs of brilliant shades of red and gold. The fall flowers will follow suit and adorn our altar thanks to the generous donors to the lotus circle. I'm sure the flower toban members will especially enjoy arranging the colorful array. We

Enjoy delicious APPLES & PEARS from the Hood River Valley & support the OBT

It's hard to beat fresh apples and pears from the famous Kiyokawa Family Orchards. Keep a bowl of fresh fruit out for snacking or fill a basket for your host at Thanksgiving. If a box sounds like too much, consider splitting one with a friend...or making a couple of apple pies! This is a great opportunity that supports healthy eating, local farmers, and the Oregon Buddhist Temple! All orders will be ready for pick up at the temple's the Holiday Craft Fair, Sat., Nov. 14th (10 A.M. – 4 P.M.)
