General Meeting Summary by Judy Hittle

- Membership Report by Yoshi Ono, Membership Chair for 2014. The Membership Chair for 2015, is Al Ono.
- Update on new Minister by Scott Winner, 2014 OBT President. Scott reported that we are still in the process of ironing out an agreement between Idaho-Oregon Temple and OBT, in regards to the supervising minister, Rev. Fujimoto. The first six months have been scheduled with Rev. Fujimoto coming to OBT at least once a month. The second six months will be scheduled in March. In discussions with the Bishop it will be around 6 months to a year before a new minister will be assigned to OBT.

Scott Winner and Ken Garner have been asked to reexamine the existing minister's contract.

Yoshi Ono will take the lead in the hiring of a new minister.
- OBWA report by Jayne Ichikawa. A handout was distributed showing the OBWA activities for 2014. Jayne also reported that there are 84 paid members, 5 associate members, and 35 honorary members.
- Dharma School Report by Amy Peterson. A handout was distributed showing the various activities the Dharma School, YBA, and the Girl Scout Troop 43720, participated in during 2014. Amy also showed a separate Income-Expense-Balance for the three groups.
- Buddhist Education Committee and Minister's Assistants Report by Brenda Fugate and Etsu Osaki.

The BEC consists of the Minister, Minister's Assistants, Dharma School Coordinator and OBT President. The committee meets every 2 months or as needed, and is open to members who are interested in helping to plan various educational activities to promote Buddhism throughout the year. Stan Shiigi has also assisted with the BEC.

The BEC also oversees the library. The new librarian is Chris Dart with assistance from Susan Endecott.

- Maintenance Report by Ray Fukunaga. A handout was distributed, showing the various maintenance activities throughout the year. The most recent repairs were with the basement kitchen ventilation systems and the elevator.
- Financial Report by Elaine Yuzuriha, OBT Financial Officer. A handout was distributed showing the income and expenses for the 2014 calendar year. Although the report shows a decrease in Total Expenses, compared with 2013, the Total Income also decreased by a substantial amount which left us with an increase in the deficit.

An audit is scheduled in February by Marilyn Achterman and Chris Dart.
- Complete reports can be found in the Library for your perusal.

Board Members were introduced.

President's message Cathy Yarne, OBT President

Hello Sangha,

For those of you who missed the General Meeting on Feb. 1st, I'd like to recap two points I made in my message for 2015. The first is our mission statement. The purpose of the Oregon Buddhist

Temple is to ENSURE that the Jodo Shinshu Sangha have the facilities, minister and other resources they need to share the Buddha-Dharma in their daily lives and during their major life events.

This statement is not just the responsibility of your Board of Directors. More significantly, it is your temple therefore it is OUR mission. Every member of our Sangha needs to be mindful of our mission and help take responsibility for its success.

The second point that I would like to recap is working toward operating within our means. Although our assets are growing, financial trends of the past decade confirmed that we aren't operating within our income. Before we concede to making drastic changes, let's make a very diligent and intentional effort to improve our situation. If you have any comments or suggestions about building our Sangha or improving our finances please let a member of the Board or myself know.

Switching to a different topic, I wanted to highlight the "gift of generosity" or Dana. Dana is the act of unconditional giving without any attachment to the item or act. The more I learn about the workings of our temple, the more Dana I witness. Call them volunteers behind the scenes, anonymous, silent or secret donors. There are many situations where members selflessly donate material items, food, skills, money and time that make life at OBT easier, better and enjoyable for everyone. These individuals do not want or seek acknowledgement – they just understand the "need" and take care of it. Their acts and donations are gifts, given from the heart. So even though they don't seek it, I am so very grateful to all their acts of DANA. Namu Amida Butsu.

Cathy Yarne

HELP WANTED!

Seeking: Someone to Chair or co-chair to coordinate the Sukiyaki Dinner.

Seeking: Someone to assume coordinating the monthly Toban

Seeking: Back-up person to handle the mailing of the newsletter.

(Currently Ray Fields is the only individual who knows how to do this.)

*OBT is an organization that relies solely on volunteers. Please contact Cathy Yarne if you are willing to help.

Help Needed!

We are looking for input regarding upgrading our Audio and Video for the Temple. Please contact the board if you have suggestions or to offer assistance in this project.

As we look to the 50th Anniversary of the Temple building we are looking at sprucing up the buildings and spaces.

OBWA News by Jayne Ichikawa

OBWA was saddened to learn that long time member, Nami Sasaki, passed away on January 11, 2015. She was the wife of the late Ojiro Art Sasaki who was very active as an OBT board president and member for many years. Nami will always be remembered for her wit and sense of humor, and as a loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She was a prolific writer and was one of the first OBT newsletter editors at the old Buddhist temple. Her funeral, held on February 8 at the temple was officiated by Rev Fujimoto with family members and friends present. We offer condolences to the Sasaki family.

Our OBWA members had a very busy, productive January and February. Members attended the Hoonko seminar/service on the weekend of January 10-11 and helped the January toban prepare the lunch on Saturday and made/served traditional udon for the otoki on Sunday.

Rev. Fujimoto, our supervising minister from Idaho/Oregon, traveled to Portland to enjoy an informal dinner on Jan. 17, officiated the Sunday service on Jan. 18, and had the opportunity to meet at the Powell Valley Assisted Living Facility with the following: Mrs. Kimi Iwamoto, Mrs. Tsuyako Monas, Mrs. Teru Nishikawa, Mrs. Kazuko Sunamoto, and Mrs. Alice Ando. (Ami Kinoshita and Sumi Ikata who are residents there were unable to attend due to colds). Thank you to Marilyn Achterman, Katie Tamiyasu, Shinya and Jayne Ichikawa who provided transportation.

Our OBWA dorayaki manju is becoming well known in the Portland area! Many helpful hands led by efficient Kiyomi Dickinson made 243 dorayaki to sell at the 2015 Mochitsuki on Jan 25th. It was sold out before the event closed at 4:00! Proceeds went to OBT.

January ended with a joyful New Year's gathering at our favorite Holladay Park Plaza Penthouse "resort", thanks to Jean Matsumoto. Members were treated to fun entertainment of Bingo (thank you, Ray Fields) with great prizes, viewed a wonderful slide show remembering past OBWA events and friends, enjoyed a delicious bento lunch catered by Koji Osakaya, and most importantly were able to visit with friends and make new acquaintances. At the meeting a survey was given to find out what the needs and interests were for our members to become more involved and to attract new people into our membership. We hope to use this important information for this year's schedule/activities. OBWA welcomes Marilyn Huh and Brenda Fugate to our membership!

On Feb 1, the OBWA sponsored the Lady Kujo and Lady Ohtani service which was chaired by Judy Hittle. Minister's Assistant, Brenda Fugate gave a very informative dharma talk about the lives of these two inspirational Buddhist women who helped organize and strengthen the Buddhist Women's Association in Japan and overseas as well as being leaders for women's humanitarian movements.

There were at least 15 OBWA members who attended the NW Buddhist Convention on Feb. 13-15 at the Westin Hotel in Bellevue, WA. More details on this convention will be presented in the next newsletter.

Please note in the newsletter's donation page, the generous donations made to OBWA.

Future Events:

- Feb. 21: OBWA monthly meeting, 9:30 am; followed by OBWA cabinet meeting at 12:00
- March 14: Rev. Fujimoto will be at OBT
- March 15: Ohigan Service
- April 25 Salmon Fest preparation
- April 26: Salmon/SushiFest

We hope you will consider joining the Oregon Buddhist Women's Association. Please contact June Shiigi at obwa@oregonbuddhisttemple.com or Jayne Ichikawa at jayneichi@gmail.com or phone 503-639-0067 for questions and/or interest. Dharma School News

Thank you to all who donated to our drive for the Oregon Humane Society. The Dharma school is rescheduling it's visit there to take the donations. See you then if you want to join us.

There will be three students attending the NW District convention in Bellevue, WA.

March 8th we will observe Scout Sunday. The BCA Scouting committee has developed a new Scout Sunday Patch program.

Every year, various churches organize Camp Fire and Scout Sunday services, generally around the time of National Scouting Week. The Buddhist Churches of America Scouting Committee has created a Camp Fire and Scout Sunday patch program for all Scouts and Camp Fire youth who participate in a service.

In order to earn this patch, a Camp Fire or Scout must attend a Camp Fire and Scout Sunday service and fill out the form that corresponds with their grade level.

In the first year of participation, the Scout or Camp Fire youth earns the large patch and the 2014 year patch. For each subsequent year that the Scout or Camp Fire youth participates in the program, he or she earns the year patch.

Camp Fire and Scout Sunday is designed to raise awareness about the activities of the Scouts at the temple. We hope that you will participate in this fun program.

Thank you,
Richard Odagawa,
Chair BCA Scouting Committee

Contact dharmaschool@oregonbuddhisttemple.com if you have a Scout, Campfire, 4-H, etc. that would like to participate and earn the patch and year rockers will be available after completing the form.

Girl Scout News

Nembutsu Camporee information has arrived. This is open to Buddhist Scouts, Campfire, 4-H youth. It will be held June 26-28, 2015 at Welden West in Saratoga, CA. Registration, forms and fees due by May 1, 2015. More information available at the Temple.

It's not just Girl Scout cookie time, but it's also brightening the lives of others. The girls heard a call for Valentine's for a local senior living home and were eager to make cards for those that may not have family close to them. This was a great example of flexibility and Dana.

Girl Scout cookies that were pre-ordered will be delivered to the Temple Sunday Feb. 22nd. The new Gluten free cookies will be available for sale at that time. If you didn't get to order but would like to purchase some either for yourself or to designate to their chosen charity Ikoi No Kai, please email dharmaschool@oregonbuddhisttemple.com

YAC Leadership Summit by Kirt Achterman

This past month a NW youth delegate from Spokane and I had the opportunity to travel to Berkeley to attend a YAC (Youth Advocacy Committee) leadership summit for YBL (Young Buddhist League) participants. It was held at the Jodo Shinshu Center, headquarters for BCA.

The weekend was filled with services, Dharma sessions and bonding activities. The services were led by the youth delegates, including giving the Dharma talks. In our first session, we focused on our local YBA (Young Buddhist Association). We listened to other districts and their activities to gather ideas for our own temple. We discussed ways of becoming more involved within the district, even though the distance between temples is far. Session two was led by Reverend Henry Adams from the San Mateo Buddhist Temple. Reverend Adams taught us about loving-kindness meditation. This is a meditation expressing good thoughts for yourself and others. This is a simple, effective technique to take a break from the hassles of life.

After these two sessions, we toured the City of Berkeley. After the tour, our afternoon bonding activity was making dinner, not such a simple task. With hands tied to other group members, we ran around the building hunting for food items. Back in the kitchen with our assorted food items, we bartered with other groups until we had what we needed to produce a tasty meal. After dinner, we had our evening service run by fellow YACers. At nightfall, we gathered in the lobby surrounded by 'hints'. The hints led to an 'escape' from the lobby.

After trying unsuccessfully for half an hour, we realized we needed to work together to succeed. We pooled our knowledge and eventually came up with the right answer. At midnight, we had a walking meditation led by Reverend Adams. After that we stayed up far into the night talking and having fun. The next morning we finished off a great weekend with a service led by my peers. It was overall an amazing experience. Thank you Mrs. Osaki (Hishinuma Fund) and Sangha for the opportunity for this experience.

There's no greater Dana than selfless giving. You can use monthly Temple clean up as a meditation itself. You don't have to be on this month's Toban to help make the Temple an inviting place. If you'd like to be placed on a Toban list, please contact us at board@oregonbuddhisttemple.com.

Check with the Toban team to join them for monthly Temple and Annex cleaning.

To do lists are on the cabinets in the kitchen.

Sad News

It is with great sadness to hear of the passing of Charlotte Kasahara back in about 2013. Our sympathies go out to May and George Kasahara and Charlotte's husband, daughters and grandchildren. Charlotte attended Dharma School in the 1960's.

In September of 2014 Carl Yoshida passed away. Our sympathies to wife Kathy, brother Jimmy (Mary Ann) and their families. Carl's grandfather was a founding member of our Temple and the Yoshida's were all very active at the Temple.

Also sadly, we heard about the passing of Ken Yasutome. More details will be coming about a local memorial service.

RELIGION – WHO NEEDS IT? By Etsuko Osaki

Rev James Hozen Warrick of Seattle Betsuin lead participants in discussing some questions at the Hoonko seminar held on January 10th. People were divided into smaller groups and each discussed the following questions and came up with various answers.

1. Were you born a Buddhist or were you a convert? Almost 3 out of 5 said they were born Buddhists. Those who said they were converts had different reasons. One person claimed he was not a convert because he had no previous religion.
2. Is Buddhism a religion? If so why, if not why not? Buddhism has no god or deity. However, all religions have a philosophy and a way of life. One group claimed Buddhism is a religion, a philosophy and a way of life.
3. Do you think everyone needs religion? If so why, if not why not? Depends on the definition of religion. There are atheists and agnostics. People may be spiritual but not have a religion.
4. Why do you come to temple? Some come to learn about the religion, some come for the social, for the fellowship, kids come to please their parents, some come for help, for the food, to make new friends.
5. Do you consider yourself spiritual?
6. Do you think Jodoshinshu is real Buddhism? Yes, why. No, why?
7. What is religion? What is spirituality? Religion has certain beliefs, how to live ones life. Spirituality is a way of life, a journey inside of self. Kids who have religion or spirituality do better later in life. Jodoshinshu doesn't talk much about #5.

Buddhism teaches us to live in harmony with all things. Listening is most important. It was a very meaningful day for those who attended. Thank you, Rev. Warrick.

Salmon&SushiFest

Thank you for being a part of our second annual Salmon&SushiFest.

We are offering a delicious Salmon/chicken combo with rice, vegetable and salad. We are fortunate to have talented, willing members to prepare and serve our guests.

This year Nichiren is joining us to offer their famous sushi, as a side dish. This is an opportunity for the Buddhist community to share the dharma and their friendship.

We have a slate of eager performers scheduled throughout the event. Many of the performers are from our Sangha; Tea ceremony, Middle Eastern dance, Taiko, Karate, Ikebana demonstration, Koto and Brass ensemble. Please join us as a helper and a diner. Please invite your family, friends, co-workers and neighbors. It will be an enjoyable event. In Gassho, Marilyn Achterman

OBT MEMBERSHIP by Alfred Ono, membership chairman

Membership is important to the strength of Oregon Buddhist Temple. We realize many of you attend services and even help at special events, and we want you to keep coming. However, we feel it's important that you support the Temple by joining as a member. Also we would like those who are interested in the temple or formers members to come back and join OBT again.

Last year we had 119 members. Hopefully this year we would like to have more members with a goal of 150 members.

Some regular attendees have not signed up for membership saying that they did not get around to it or the dues are too formidable.

I am encouraging people to sign up for membership by submitting the form. . We just want attendees to show their support and this is a first step. You can pay your dues with your membership form submission, pay what you can for now with future payments down the road or we will deal with the dues payment at a later date. Some have just forgotten their check book and with other we need to see what works for them. We do not want people to be intimidated to join because of the dues. I am also encouraging members who do have the means or desire to pay extra so that we can use this donation to help others with their dues who find the amount an issue. Several members have made this donation already.

Also, I would like all readers to please help us by filling out this short survey. You do not need to sign your name. Give it me or Cathy Yarne, mail it, or drop it off.

- I am a member
- I am not a member presently but I intend to sign up when I get around signing up
- I am interested in membership and considering joining
- I would like to be a member but I cannot afford the dues
- I am not interested in membership
- I think the dues of $250.00 are just right
- I think the dues of $250.00 are too low
- I think the dues of $250.00 are too high
